

The following steps must be taken if you have COVID-19 symptoms.

Symptoms include a recent onset of a new continuous cough or a high temperature (above 37.8 degrees) or a loss of, or change in, normal sense of taste or smell.

